Are you a Balloon Race winner?

Tuesday 29th April 2008

Brethertons LLP celebrated the launch of its new website on 24th April 2008 by releasing 100's of balloons.

The balloon release took place at its offices in Banbury and Rugby.

Brethertons are giving away 'goody bags' to people who find and register a balloon on their new website: Brethertons.co.uk.

Shaun Jardine, Partner at Brethertons said:

“Launching the balloons was a bit of fun to celebrate the new website, which is packed with information and downloadable factsheets for individuals and businesses seeking legal advice on any number of matters. We hope that everyone enjoyed finding the balloons and receiving their prizes.”

The website is user-friendly, easy to navigate and contains features such as the Knowledge Hub: a library of information on many legal matters; and offers access to the Property Mediation Zone, which uses pioneering Online Dispute Resolution virtual technology (aimed specifically at the property management industry) to help resolve disputes.

As well as forthcoming events, the website contains informative staff biographies and a comprehensive Careers section for anyone wishing to apply for a job at Brethertons.

The site will help not only individuals and businesses seeking legal advice, but also existing clients who want to find out more about their lawyers and other Brethertons staff.
