...Brethertons LLP goes the extra “Sport Relief Mile”

Monday 17 March 2008

Brethertons LLP went more than the extra mile to support Sport Relief yesterday, with over 40 employees, family and friends coming together to participate in the Daventry Sport Relief Mile.

Having five offices across Banbury and Rugby, Daventry is the central venue and seemed a perfect opportunity for Brethertons to come out in force to support Comic Relief.

The members of our mixed-ability team ranged from one to nearly 60 years of age and between them ran, jogged and strolled a combination of the one, three and six miles to raise money for Sport Relief.

The final amount raised is still being counted and collected in through donations, which sport relief, will spend on worth while projects both in the UK and developing countries.

Richard Pell, Brethertons Senior Partner said:

“We are proud so many Brethertons LLP employees came together to support such a good cause. Although the weather was not on our side, there was a great atmosphere on the day and real sense of goodwill in the Brethertons LLP camp.”
